R-Ladies Sydney

20/06/2018

Get to know the Sydney R-Ladies!

It's a launch event, so why not get to know your fellow R-Ladies? As an ice-breaker, every handout has a "bingo" card. See if you can find someone who...

Wants to be a data scientist	Has written their own R package
Can see the Opera House from their office	Commutes to work on a bike
Has 3 siblings	Is a member of Datacamp
Is an academic	Has a (mini) library of stats textbooks
Is new to using R	Prefers a flat white to a long black
Loves Andy Field	Does not have a Facebook account
Owns reusable stainless steel straws	Has a dog
Can explain why Snapchat exists	Has used a library card catalog

The bingo cards are randomised – using R, naturally, because we are stats nerds! – so everyone should have a slightly different list of things to find!

Want to live tweet about the talks?
