

R-Ladies Sydney Launch - Lightning Talks!

20 June 2018

Get to know the Sydney R-Ladies!

It's a launch event, so why not get to know your fellow R-Ladies? As an ice-breaker, every handout has a "bingo card". See if you can find someone who...

Knows how to tweet from within R	Can explain why Snapchat exists
Thinks Messina is overrated	Can play an unusual instrument
Knows how to record but not write Excel macros	Wants to be a data scientist
Prefers chardonnay to sav. blanc	Enjoys cooking
Has gone scuba or sky diving	Remembers floppy disks
Has a cat	Can knit (with needles and wool)
Likes to run	Prefers merlot to shiraz
Uses plastic free shampoo/conditioner	Knows C++

The items have been randomised – using R, naturally – so everyone should have a different list!

Want to live tweet about the talks?

name	twitter_handle	talk_title
Jessica Lee		Why I R?
Emi Tanaka	@statsgen	Making a Shiny interactive web application using R
Wendy Wong	@abc_wendsss	Transitioning from financial planning to data science
Sarah Romanes	@sarah_romanec	My long journey learning R - then and now
Zoe Meers	@zoe_meers	ggparliament: Parliament plots in the tidyverse
Lovisa Lannesand		From Excel to R in the world of finance
Kate Dodds	@kate_munnik	Learning the lingo - An R newbie's perspective
Charles Gray	@cantabile	My experience at runconf18

- Don't forget to @ the speaker in the tweet :-)
- Include the #rladies hashtag. Adding @rldiessydney optional
- Include a picture if you have one! (speaker or slides)
- More speaker info is on the blog: rldiessydney.org/posts/lightning-talks
